

The Pianomen

Mark Wood and Jim Hayden

Elegant music...for any occasion

These two gifted musicians, with their diverse playing styles, take an incredible variety of music, and blend it into an intoxicating and entertaining show. Jim, who was trained formally at the world-renowned Berklee College of Music in Boston, and Mark, a third generation honky tonk and boogie woogie piano player, together create a very unique entertainment style that is The Pianomen.

Mark began playing music professionally at the age of 11 and Jim at the age of 14. A lifetime in show business has resulted in a combined repertoire of over two thousand songs. Whether yours is an elegant black tie affair, a Vegas styled event, or a casual beach party, The Pianomen will design the perfect show for your individual needs both visually and musically.

Mark and Jim can perform all styles of music ranging from Classical to Rock and Roll, Country to Ragtime, or Boogie Woogie to Broadway. With their ability to capture the playing and vocal styles of most artists, the listening experience is incredible. No matter what the theme or style, Mark Wood and Jim Hayden, The Pianomen, will make your upcoming event one that will not soon be forgotten.
